

QUEENSLAND CHILD PROTECTION COMMISSION OF INQUIRY

PROCEDURAL GUIDELINE 01-2012

Submissions

1. Any public contribution to the Commission is normally referred to as a submission.
2. Submissions addressing specific Terms of Reference in electronic form are preferred but there are many ways of being part of the process including making informal comments or formal submissions, orally or in writing, or providing information about relevant issues or personal experiences. Any meaningful contribution will be gratefully received.
3. Unless non publication is clearly intended or deemed appropriate for other reasons the Commission will treat a submission as non-confidential and in the interests of openness and informed public debate will normally make it available to any party or organisation on request and may also publish it on the website.

Submissions should be sent to:

The Executive Director,
Queensland Child Protection Commission of Inquiry
PO Box 12196
GEORGE ST QLD 4003

Email: submissions@childprotectioninquiry.qld.gov.au or may also be made using the online form on the Commission's homepage:
