Mr. P. Coyne,
Manager,
John Oxley Youth Centre,
(Seconded to Special Duties)

Dear Mr. Coyne,

I refer to your memorandum of 27 June, 1990 in relation to your proposed public comment. I have considered the matters on which you intend to make public comment.

Please be advised that you are hereby directed by me that you are not to make any comment in relation to the management or administration of the John Oxley Youth Centre or on any matter pertaining thereto.

I note that you do not intend to use your official title when making comment. In this regard, I would point out to you that conduct in relation to which officers of the Public Service are liable to disciplinary action under the Public Service Management and Employment Act can relate not only to conduct occurring whilst that officer is on duty but also whilst the officer is off duty and purporting to act in a private capacity.

Failure to comply with the above direction may render you liable to disciplinary action pursuant to the provisions of the Public Service Management and Employment Act.

R.L. Matchett (Ms)
Chief Executive
